DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-7, 10, and 12 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: With regard to claims 5-6, 10, and 12, the prior art of record does not disclose or otherwise suggest a ball bearing assembly with inner and outer rings, intrapositioned ball bearings, an annular cage with a plurality of pockets corresponding to the number of said ball bearings wherein the cage pockets have a relationship between a guide clearance α and a pocket β that takes into account an expansion amount of said annular cage in said radial direction due to rotational centrifugal force x , and an expansion amount of said annular cage in said radial direction due to thermal expansion y , such that a relationship $x+y < \alpha < \beta + x$ is achieved, such that said inner wall surface of said pockets of said cage does not interfere with said balls, even when said cage becomes off-centered.

With regard to claim 7, the prior art of record does not disclose or otherwise suggest a ball bearing assembly with inner and outer rings, intrapositioned ball bearings, an annular cage with a plurality of pockets corresponding to the number of said ball bearings wherein the cage pockets have a relationship between a guide clearance range α_{\min} to α_{\max} and a pocket clearance range β_{\min} to β_{\max} that takes into account an expansion amount of said annular cage in said radial direction due to rotational centrifugal force x , and an expansion amount of said annular cage in said radial direction due to thermal expansion y , such that the relationships

$\alpha_{\max} > \beta_{\min} + x$ and $\alpha_{\min} > x+y$ are met, such that said inner wall surface of said pockets of said cage does not interfere with said balls, even when said cage becomes off-centered.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
